HILO GETS RUMOR OF "HARMONY" PLAN

[Special Correspondence, Star-Bulletin.] HILO, T. T., July 1.—Rev Stephen Desha leaves today for Honolulu on the rumor, it is said, of a proposed "harmony program" of the Kuhio and Frear leaders. The receipt of this news here has upset political figures and some Hawaiians declare that if such a thing should happen they would swing their entire forces to Link McCandless, Democrat.

District Attorney Breckons arrived yesterday and conferred with Desha, and returns on the steamer.

TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS. Members of Honolulu Lodge, Oceanic Lodge and all visiting brethren are fraternally invited to attend.

By order of the W. M. K. R. G. WALLACE, Secretary.

KUHIO TELLS HAWAIIANS TO WORK TOGETHER

Politics started busily at Moiliili church last Saturday night when the Moiliili church gave a social affair which was distinguished by the presence of many prominent Hawaiian politicians.

Prince Kuhio attended the function as a social event, but was called upon Building, Fort street, over May & Co. not go into politics to any extent, he called upon the Hawaiians to work together for the best interests of the territory and to stand for true American principles. In a way, his own attitude was outlined.

James H. Boyd, D. Kalanogalan, Jr., St. Pili and others spoke and the gathering took on more and more of a political aspect as the meeting progressed.

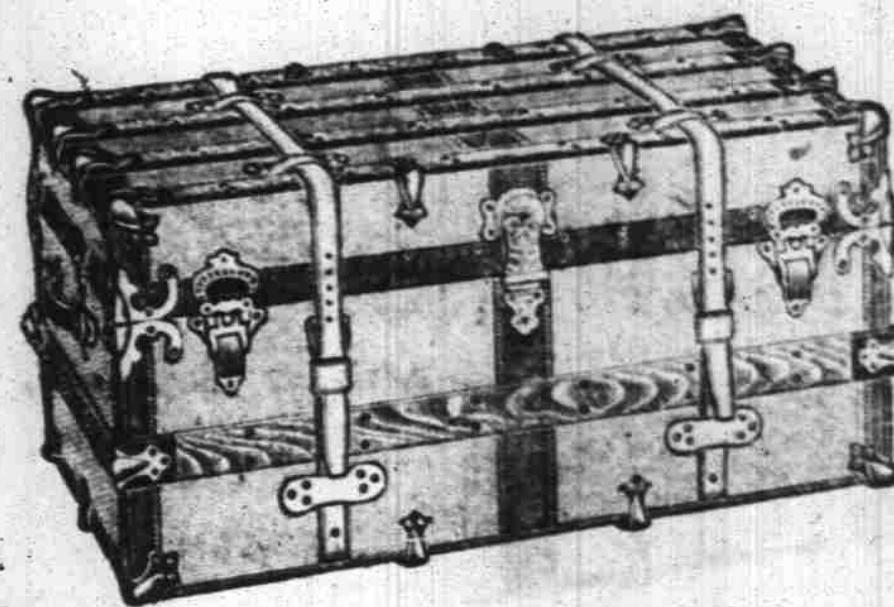

EXPERT TELLS NEEDS OF CITY

A comparatively small number of ladies met at the Kaulani Home this morning to meet Miss Frances Blascoer and hear what she had to say in regard to the social conditions in this city. Miss Blascoer opened her talk with a brief mention of the ways in which the large cities in the United States are handling these conditions. Then she turned to the social needs in Honolulu. "The present situation in Honolulu," said Miss Blascoer, "is somewhat different from any I have yet been aware of. The children of the kindergarten are well taken care of by the Free Kindergarten Association and the Associated Charities but the older children, the ones who are most in need of an education, are sadly neglected. In school rooms that have accommodations for thirty, there are sixty children and each year there are children of the public school age turned away because of the lack of room in the school houses. Although only a few steps have been taken to remedy the need, the workers feel that in time more progress can be made."

At the close of the meeting names of several ladies who are willing to help with this work, were given to Miss Blascoer.

SALVATION ARMY SEES CHANGES
